Product description

Flexible silicone mould for plaster, concrete, or resin cast. This is perfect if you want to cast your own interior accessories. Our silicone mould is both flexible and durable, making it perfect for casting with different materials, such as plaster, concrete, or Resin Cast. And you can easily clean the mould by rinsing it in soapy water. The silicone-based surface ensures that no residue will stick to it, so you can reuse the mould for your next creative project in no time.
